

Winter & Spring Modules
Auditors welcome

CTS will make available in two formats the following two modules: streaming in real time and DVD. We recommend that each student take the courses by streaming. However, if one's schedule does not allow for streaming, viewing by DVD is acceptable. Computer requirements are Windows Media Player, or comparable software.

January-February 2008
JS 801 Jewish Life of Christ (2)

Arnold Fruchtenbaum, Ph.D.
Required for All M.B.S. Students

A chronological survey of the life of Jesus Christ as recorded in the four Gospels. The course will focus on first-century Jewish culture, theological perspectives, and the rabbinic background in which Jesus lived, died, and rose again. All course work for this module must be completed and postmarked by February 29, 2008.

Live Streaming Dates	Days	Times
January 17 & 18	Thursday & Friday	6:45-9:15 pm CST
January 19	Saturday	8:30 am - 12:30 pm CST
January 24 & 25	Thursday & Friday	6:45-9:15 pm CST
January 26	Saturday	8:30 am - 12:30 pm CST
January 31 & February 1	Thursday & Friday	6:45-9:15 pm CST
February 2	Saturday	8:30 am - 12:30 pm CST

February-May 2008
HT 503 History of Doctrine (2)

Robert Dean, D.Min.
Required for All Th.M. Students

This course is required for Th.M. credit students. A study of the theological and historical development of selected doctrines with attention to the progressive development of each theological theme from the first century to the present day. For credit, the student must complete the course by the end of the Spring Semester 2008, no later than Finals week.

Live streaming Dates	Days	Times
Begins February 4	Mondays	7-9 pm CST
This class will run for a normal 14-week semester
March 10-12, 2008	CTS Bible Conference	Classes cancelled for the week
March 17-21, 2008	Easter break	Classes cancelled for the week